

Krka National Park

(combination boat/bus or bus/boat)

Departure by boat from Solaris, from the pier in front of the NIKO hotel.

In the case of a large group of guests, one part of the guests departs by boat and returns by bus, and the other part of the guests vice versa.

By pleasant sailing on a beautiful wooden boat or bus we reach the Krka National Park. Boating takes 2 hours, and the bus ride takes about 20 minutes. Lunch is served on board.

(Lunch is excellent and is cooked on board and includes: Dalmatian prosciutto and cheese, salted marinated anchovies, cod pate, octopus salad, SKRADIN risotto and cucumber / tomato salad with one drink per choice).

What you'll see:

- tour of Skradinski buk accompanied by an expert guide
- walks along paths and bridges that follow the formation of waterfalls
- view of the ethno collection
- tour of the weaving workshop with an expert presentation
- a tour of mills, rolling mills and pillars that have used the power of Skradinski Buk for centuries, whose travertine barriers and waterfalls leave every visitor breathless

As we enter the National Park directly by boat almost to Skradinski Buk, guests spend as much as 4 hours in the park itself. Accompanied by a guide, guests spend about 1 hour, and then have free time (about 3 hours) for swimming, photography, etc. Then there is a gathering at the agreed place and with the guide guests go to the boat / bus and return.

Maximum capacity: 200 pax (100 pax boat-bus combination and 100 pax bus-boat combination)

Price: € 68,00 per person

In price included: boat/bus, guide, lunch, entrance ticket to NP Krka
